as a person who teaches korean it was difficult to find a book that would be recommended to beginner students so i decided to make a storybook for beginners the stories in this book are shared by my students themselves after receiving their stories from students i chose words that korean often uses in real life and wrote them in an accent that be used in daily conversations in the process of editing some stories will be fun some will be sad encouraging and touching i really hope that you can learn korean naturally from the experiences and stories of various and interesting students when we study a language we all think about how to increase our vocabulary and how to write and speak more naturally we all know that it s a great way to listen to a lot of native speakers talk about that and read what they write however when we try to find something to read we feel that newspapers novels and magazines are too difficult for our level we often give up because we get tired of looking for words we don t know one by one i hope this book will serve as a good stepping stone before reading korean newspapers and books and i would like to express my sincere gratitude to the students who provided the stories please check my youtube channel youtube.com/channel/ucd2386mftvikh7bh339dtwg if you need audio file for these stories
